Washington, DC,

HELLO EVERYBODY!

Greetings to our good iris friends. We thank you for your friendship and trust that it will continue many years. We were pleased with the response made by our customers last year. It was pleasant to have so many garden club members visit the garden. Come again.

We ask for only a share of your orders. We know you will be pleased. A pleased customer is our best advertisement. We have one of the best collections of day-lilies and iris in the midwest. Our plants are state inspected.

Our catalog is quite modest. Our garden is one of quality; not quantity. We do not issue a wholesale list. If you wish to submit a special list, please do so, and we will quote you a special price.

Garden clubs are especially invited to visit us, Iris are at their peak about May 25. Daylilies bloom from June 1 through July and August. We have many new iris, and daylilies that we have not listed.

We are introducing three very lovely and worth while iris. They have been thoroughly tested and have performed well. They are new colors and I feel sure you will love them in your garden.

Since I have retired from teaching I can now give some time to judging and lecturing. I will be available to garden clubs for lectures on any phase of gardening. My 30 years teaching biology in college gives me a rich background. Write for particulars, if interested.

Yours for Better Iris and Day lilies.

OUR 1958 INTRODUCTIONS

DOROTHY BEATTY; This is a very large iris of rosy vinaceous purple, the standards of a lighter color than the falls. There is a rosy, opalescent suffusion over the entire flower. Both standards and falls are edged with a golden brown laced edging. Haft is golden brown and the beard is yellow. Substance is like leather, and it takes the wind and rain well. Branching is good. Height about 34-36 inches. Standards are closely held together and the falls flare out just right. Fertile both ways. This color is new. I have seen none just like it. Visitors have admired it for several years. It received a C. of C. in '50. (A.I.S. bulletin 120, under 50-50). A splendid breeder, very vigorous grower. Flowers are broad petaled and well proportioned. Midseason. Stock limited ----- Each net $25.00

GIMA SAN; This is a very large ivory self, with a yellow beard. We need more iris of this color in our gardens. Midseason. The standards and falls are wide giving a massive appearance. Substance is excellent, and branching good. The standards hold together giving that compact, strong appearance. Edges of both standards and falls are slightly laced. Height 34-36 in. Fertile both ways. Parents Snowqualmie X Evenglow. Much admired by visitors. Good grower. Stock limited, ----- Each net $20.00

MOOD MAUVE; A huge rose lavender with a tangerine beard and the edge of the standards and falls have a slight lacing. The substance is excellent, and the flower holds together well. There is a cream area around the haft with a few light brown lines which add to the beauty of the flower. Branching and placement are good. Fertile both ways. A good grower and a fine bloomer. A very lovely flower. This flower is a strong producer. So I can price it low ----- Each net $15.00

NOTE: These iris may be seen at the following test gardens.

Minnick's Test Garden, Kansas City, Mo.

HEMEROCALLIS

In the past ten years the daylily has taken the floral world by storm. Hybridizers have produced many new colors and forms. It blooms when the garden is much in need of color, in July, August, and September. I am proud to present to you this list of daylilies. My prices are very low. Price is for a good plant, not just a sprig. We are liberal with extras. Note the collection offers and the reduction in price on larger orders. Note height in inches.

SEEDLINGS

When I select my finest seedlings for registration and introduction, I always have many that are almost as good as those selected. These are grown and sold to customers who want something good but not high priced. These seedlings are not the cast away type, but lovely, big, full-bodied flowers that will please. No parentage is given with these. That means a lot of work, hence they cost more. I have iris seedlings in many colors and forms. blue, white, yellow, blends, and the lovely pinks, etc.

In the daylilies I have yellow, orange, cream, light yellow, red, rose, purple, etc. You will like these seedlings. Order by color.

Price per rhizome, or root, $1.00, or $10.00 per dozen.

HYBRID SEED

For many years I have been selling hybrid seed, both iris and daylilies to people who are interested in growing iris from seed. It is a very interesting and profitable hobby. Several of my customers have written me that they have had splendid results. Some have introduced iris produced from these seeds. Old Mother Nature has no secrets. You are just as likely to get a "break" as I am. When they "happen" they are worth a lot to iris fanciers. I am using only the very choicest iris in the different color classes. All cannot be named here. I am selling seeds of both iris and daylilies in three different classes.

Twenty-five (25) seeds to a packet.

IRIS

CLASS I Seeds from crosses in which parentage can be given. This includes crosses for red, pink, yellow, white, blue, etc. I usually make a number of crosses in each color ----- per pkt. $2.50

CLASS II Seeds from those special iris with lacy edging ----- per pkt. $3.00

CLASS III Mixed seed. Seeds from white, red, blue, yellow, etc., crosses are placed together. This is a very good buy ----- per pkt. $1.00

I always give good count.

DAYLILIES (50 Seeds in Packet)

CLASS I Seeds from crosses in which names of parents are given. Crosses are made in reds, yellows, orange, wine, purple, blends, etc. Only the latest, big, broad petaled plants are used _____ per pkt. $2.50

CLASS II Seeds from the finest pink daylilies on the market. This is a special class and these seeds are valuable _____ per pkt. $3.00

CLASS III Seeds from several different colors are mixed. This is a good buy. Price _____ per pkt. $1.00

All of the crosses made are made after much study. Much time is given to working out the best cross in a given color. The crosses are made scientifically. This has been my life's work.

For 30 years I taught genetics in college, and the knowledge I have of the subject enables me to make a cross that will "nick." So, if you like adventure, like to work with unseen forces that will give you a lift, try raising some good plants from seeds. It's exhilarating.

MIXED SEED can also be furnished from SPURIA and SIBERIAN iris.

Price _____ per pkt. $1.00

Iris seed should be subjected to a cold treatment before planting. If you live in a state where cold weather occurs, then plant outside in a good, well-prepared bed about November 1st. Don't expect every seed to germinate the first year. They won't. Sometimes they stay in the soil several years and then germinate. I usually get from 50 per cent to 90 per cent germination. Keep bed moist but not too wet after planting. Mulch with grass or excelsior when hard freezing occurs. This prevents heaving. Seed will be shipped about September 1.

Daylily seed may be planted as soon as they are gathered. They may also be planted early in spring.

If you live in the Southern States, young seedlings will grow all winter. In the North they must be protected with a mulch. Seeds are shipped about September 1. Special crosses will be made, but that is a matter for correspondence. Please write me fully what you have in mind. I will do my best.

Here's hoping you will develop a wonderful hobby.
